Terms & Condition

All costumes are rented at the listed price for either a Project rental or Production rental.

A Project rental is typically the rental of our costumes for a one to three day presentation. Simply let us know the day the costume is needed (the actual presentation day) and we will deliver your costume to you a few days before via US postal service Priority Mail. At the time of shipping your credit card will be charged for the full week rental plus shipping as it appears on your rental agreements. The costume is to be returned and postmarked on or before the date listed on your agreements as “return due date”.

A Production rental is a three-week rental, however, special arrangements can be made to change the length of rentals. With a production rental our costumes that are rented as first run rentals will actually be cut to fit your actors and returned to us as rentals (upon approval).

An example of production rental...

- Show name and director’s notes are sent to us along with the cast’s names and measurements.
- Production costumes made to fit cast (this is called “first run” production rentals) or pulled from our inventory.
- Costumes shipped all at once at agreed date for a 2 to 3 week period, allowing time for rehearsals. (a surplus can be ordered so you can have choices and fittings with a restocking fee of 10% of the rental cost. The rejects must be returned within 3 days or else they will be charged as a production rental.

- Post production you will return the costumes all at the same time with a copy of the original invoice and cleaned. Washing instructions will be included on your rental agreements. No need to iron.
- Any loss and damage will be assessed and added to the final rental cost to be run on the credit card at the end of assessment.

Notes:

What is “loss & damage”? We understand and allow for normal wear and tear, however, we do charge for unusual damages such as cuts in the fabric and obvious stains that alter the costume’s appearance. Tears in the seams stitching or applied trim could be considered normal wear & tear.

Cleaning: Costumes are to be cleaned before being returned. Cleaning instructions will be included in the original costume shipment. If you have any questions about costume care simply call or email and we will be happy to help you. If returned dirty we charge a $10 cleaning fee per costume.
